Dear Chicken Fox,

Thank you for your email of 27 February 2018 to the Port Authority requesting information about concerns of irregularities in human resources, finance and other areas at the Port Authority. The Port Authority FOI Manager forwarded this request onto our Office on 5 March 2018. The Port Authority FOI Manager and I determined to split this request in which I would respond to the request "4) are there any reports or documentation relating to these irregularities?"

We have considered your application for information and are pleased to grant you partial access to the records being requested. We have redacted sections of the report for personal information under section 23(1) of the FOI Law.

There is no fee for providing this record to you.

The Auditor General was involved in the review of this freedom of information request and therefore an internal review process is not available to you as described under section 34 of the FOI Law.

However, you have the right under section 42 of the FOI Law to appeal to the Deputy Ombudsman (Freedom of Information) within 30 days of the receipt of this letter for the decision taken by the Auditor General and the Freedom of Information Manager of the Office of the Auditor General.

Contact Details for the Ombudsman's Office:
